Do you own your own master for the song(s) you're interested in licensing?

Yes No Don't Know

Do you own all your own publishing for the song(s) that you're interested in licensing?

Yes No Don't Know

Are your songs registered with a Performing Rights Organization such as BMI, ASCAP or SESAC, naming you as owner of 100% of publishers share and 100% of writers share)? (if not we can provide info on how to do this)

Yes No Don't Know

Do you have all the paperwork to show copyright registration or application for copyright application for any of the songs you want to license? Yes No Don't Know

If you are signed to a management company or other agent, do you have the paperwork or the written okay indicating that you are permitted to freely enter into a publishing agreement for licensing opportunities?

Yes No Don't Know

Have you ever signed a non-exclusive licensing agreement for any of the songs that you're interested in licensing through us? If so, you must provide us with copies of all related paperwork – not today – we'll ask you for it later.

We cannot work with you in licensing arrangements if:

If you've signed any other publishing agreement for these songs, we are not able to work with you in our licensing efforts.

If you used a sample or excerpt from another artist's work in your song(s), they would not be eligible for our licensing agreement.

ALL SONGS MUST BE YOUR ORIGINALS.

What we will need if we work together: (do not send it now; we will ask you for it when it's time and if we proceed together).

- All paperwork as discussed above - our attorneys will be reviewing all paperwork, and it all needs to be in order.
- Prompt response to all inquiries; all inquiries will come directly through Pacific Coast Jazz or That Other Label Management.
- Artist Marketing Materials - including video clips of performance, photo images in digital format, CD's, bios, press on the band and a list of all your website addresses including MySpace pages.
